DANDENONG RANGES This is our first weekend visit to this part of the world. Melbourne is a bit tricky to get around on Friday afternoons so we'll leave a little earlier to beat the traffic. Once there, you'll be impressed with the Dandenong Ranges' natural beauty and the abundance of things to do. We'll explore the DR national park and the historic townships dotted along the range. We can take in the majestic views overlooking the city and be amazed at the carved sculptures in the William Ricketts Sanctuary.	2pm Friday Aug 9th - 4pm Sunday Aug 11th	$100	Bookings open now
WILSONS PROMONTORY -TERM BREAK HOLIDAY Staying in the Wilsons Promontory region, we'll have 3 glorious days to explore. The Wilson Prom National Park is one of the finest parks in Australia, filled with amazing natural wonders and creatures. We'll check out Squeaky Beach, spy on the abundant population of local wombats and other native animals, take in a bush walk or two, and explore the South Gippsland region. Book in soon, as spots will go quickly.	9am Sunday Sept 29th - 5pm Wed Oct 2nd	$200	Bookings open now
BALLARAT GOLDFIELDS The weather's starting to warm up, so it's safe to venture back into central Victoria! Ballarat is an historic town packed full of great weekend activities. Sovereign Hill is a must when in Ballarat, but there's a heap of other fun things to do as well, such as Ballarat Wildlife Park, Kryal Castle, and the fantastic Art Gallery.	3.15pm Friday Oct 25th – 4pm Sunday Oct 27th	$100	Bookings open now
12 APOSTLES AND THE GREAT OCEAN ROAD We had some requests to take a trip all the way down the Great Ocean Road to see what all the fuss is about! Thousands of international tourists head this way every day so we thought we'd dedicate a weekend in the region. We'll be staying close to Port Campbell - a lovely tourist town right next to the 12 Apostles.	3.15pm Friday Nov 15th – 4pm Sunday Nov 17th	$150	Bookings open now
BELARINE PENINSULA After the success of last year's Bellarine weekend escape, we've decided to add it to the itinerary again. Sometimes the best places for a weekend away are closer than you think. The weather will have warmed up enough to hit the beaches again and we plan to do just that. We'll try some snorkeling, swimming and other beach activities, along with exploring some lesser-known attractions that only the locals know about!	3.15pm Friday Dec 13th – 4pm Sunday Dec 15th	$100	Bookings open now
MT GAMBIER AND DISTRICT – TERM BREAK HOLIDAY Another first for Changing Tracks - we've never ventured this far out west. Just over the Victoria border into South Australia lies the picturesque town of Mt Gambier which will be our base for 3 days. It's a great spot to set up as we explore both the inland and coastal areas of the region. We'll be spoilt for choice of activities but hope to check out the bottomless Blue Lake, Naracoorte Caves, Umpherston Sinkhole, the Big Lobster! and many of the region's spectacular beaches. Book in quick, limited spaces available!	9am Sunday Jan 12th – 5pm Wed Jan 15th	$200	Bookings open now
