TIMES /DATE	DESTINATION	COST
3.30pm Fri 28 th Feb – 4.00pm Sun 1 st March	FEBRUARY /MARCH -Port Fairy This little coastal hamlet is an absolute gem! With beautiful beaches, gorgeous streets and scenery, Port Fairy is the perfect weekend getaway. We'll spend time swimming, taking in some coastal walks, exploring nearby Griffith Island Lighthouse and Reserve and wandering around the charming historic town centre. If we have time, we'll also check out the extinct volcano and wildlife reserve of Tower Hill	$100
9.00am Sun 5 th April – 4.00pm Thurs 9 th April	APRIL -TERM BREAK HOLIDAY -5 DAYS & 4 NIGHTS -Lakes Entrance For the first time we are planning an extended trip away for 5 days and 4 nights. Lakes Entrance is one of the most beautiful and remarkable parts of Victoria and a place that we haven't yet had the chance to explore. Its renowned for its water ways and beaches and April will be the perfect time to explore the region. Get in quick, limited places.	$250
3.30pm Fri 15 th May – 4.00pm Sun 17 th May	MAY -Melbourne Adventure Our last Melbourne weekend was such a hit we've decided to get it onto our 2020 calendar. This time we've lined it up with one of the AFL games of the season -Cats Vs Tigers at the MCG (Fri night game). It will be epic! We'll stay in central Melbourne to get the full experience and use the weekend to explore some of the best things Victoria's capital has to offer.	$150
10am Fri 12 th June – 4pm Sun 14 th June	JUNE -Yarra Valley Another first for Changing Tracks. The Yarra Valley is one of the most popular weekend getaways for Victorians. We'll leave early on Friday to avoid the traffic then spend the weekend soaking up the beautiful scenery. It is famous for food and wines but also for outdoor activities, National Parks and historic towns.	$150
10am Fri 17 th July – 4pm Mon 20 th July	JULY - High Country holiday Who doesn't love the Victorian Alps in winter?! After 2 awesome trips to Bright, we'll switch things up this time around and stay closer to Mansfield, the perfect place to access Mt Buller. We'll head up to the snow for a day trip, visit the Mansfield Zoo, check out some markets and explore the region. The scenery is amazing and the perfect winter break. We've decided to take this trip outside the main holiday period to beat the rush and high prices.	$200

CHANGING TRACKS 2020 HOLIDAYS CALENDAR

3.30pm Fri 7th Aug – 4.00pm Sun 9th Aug	AUGUST -Whale Watching Warrnambool This trip has become an annual event for Changing Tracks, and we've been lucky enough to see whales on every adventure. Warrnambool is the whale watching centre of Victoria and our chances of seeing more are high. Warrnambool is also a beautiful place for many other things such as Flagstaff Hill Maritime Village, Tower Hill Volcano, Lake Pertobe and the Bay of Islands just to name a few.	$100
3.30pm Fri 11th Sept – 4.00pm Sun 13th Sept	SEPTEMBER -Pyrenees Ranges The Pyrenees Ranges are located in central Victoria and have become a very popular weekend escape. The region is renowned as a wine producing region but also for its national parks and gold mining history. We'll check out the Melville Caves, take a tour of a local vineyard and enjoy exploring some of the local historic towns such as Maryborough, Avoca, Moonambel and Dunolly.	$100
9.00am Mon 28th Sept – 4.00pm Thurs 1st Oct	SEPTEMBER -TERM BREAK HOLIDAY -Portland /Cape Bridgewater How lucky are we to live in Victoria?! We have some of the best coastlines in the world and we are spoilt for choice on locations to visit. Portland is an historic whaling port that has some fascinating attractions to keep us entertained. We plan to take the famous seal boat tour from Cape Bridgewater, visit the Mount Richmond National Park for some sand slide action, explore the whale museum and historic tram ride through Portland and check out the Cape Nelson lighthouse and Tarragal Caves.	$200
3.30pm Fri 16th Oct – 4.00pm Sun 18th Oct	OCTOBER -Grampians /Gariwerd (Southern End) Another popular trip for Changing Tracks, the Grampians is a brilliant holiday destination. On this weekend away we'll be staying around Dunkeld. About 2 hours from Geelong this southern end of the Grampians is a very different experience to the usual tourist hot spot of Halls Gap. We'll get in some lovely bush walks, enjoy the views from Mt Sturgeon, explore the historic town of Dunkeld and its surrounds and check out some of the ancient Aboriginal art to be found around Gariwerd.	$100
3.30pm Fri 13th Nov – 4.00pm Sun 15th Nov	NOVEMBER -Bendigo (Blues & Roots Festival) We've timed this weekend away to Bendigo to coincide with their annual Blues & Roots festival. The town centre and botanic gardens are transformed with loads of free music and entertainment taking place. We stumbled across the event 2 years ago and had an amazing time watching bands and checking out the festivities which run across the whole weekend. Bendigo has many other attractions that we'll make time to see.	$100
3.30pm Fri 11th Dec – 4.00pm Sun 13th Dec	DECEMBER -Mornington Peninsula (take 2) The Mornington Peninsula has a huge array of activities and after our last trip to the region we came away thinking that another tour was in order. We'll take the ferry across the bay again, but this time we plan to head to the Enchanted Adventure Garden for a day of exhilarating fun. The weather will have warmed up enough to spend time at the bayside beaches and perhaps even some fishing?? The Moonlit Animal Sanctuary looks amazing, and there's no end of galleries museums and sites to keep us entertained.	$150
